

CHATEAU LANGLET

White 2015

Graves Appellation
Grand Vin de Bordeaux

PRESENTATION OF THE ESTATE

---

Situated in the commune of Cabanac-et-Villagrains, in the township of La Brède, the Château Langlet is one of the most ancient wines of the region. It is listed for its red and white wine production in the 1868 edition of « Bordeaux and its Wines », published by Féret Editions.

The vineyard is spread over a hill of deep gravel, with a magnificent position. It has been in the Jean Kressmann family since 1999, which has enforced a traditional winegrowing and winemaking culture in order to obtain the best from this exceptional terroir.

« Château Langlet 2015, a pale yellow with green highlights. A very aromatic nose, revealing lovely notes of citrus fruits (grapefruit, lemon) and flowers. The palate is lively and refreshing. It offers a great balance between good acidity and fruity citrus aromas. The length is delightfully pleasant. Drink over the next 4 years. »
