

CHATEAU LANGLET

Red 2015

Graves Appellation
Grand Vin de Bordeaux

PRESENTATION OF THE ESTATE

---

Situated in the commune of Cabanac-et-Villagrains, in the township of La Brède, the Château Langlet is one of the most ancient wines of the region. It is listed for its red and white wine production in the 1868 edition of «Bordeaux and its Wines», published by the Féret editions.

The vineyard is spread over a hill of deep gravel, with a magnificent position. It has been in the Jean Kressmann family since 1999, which has enforced a traditional winegrowing and winemaking culture in order to obtain the best from this exceptional terrain.

« The Château Langlet 2015 is deep red. An expressive nose with soft Merlot aromas of blackcurrant and black cherry, lightly toasted. The palate is velvety and fleshy with ripe powerful tannins. The finish is long well-rounded and hearty. »
